SOWING IN THE FLESH

In Eph 5:27, we read, “. . . that He might present unto Himself a glorious church, not having a wrinkle or any blemish.”

God can forgive us for the seeds we sow through our deeds, but we must face the harvest. This is very serious for none are exempted. We may choose to do what we want to do and no one will stop us, but there is a loss that is incurred and that is irreversible. When the consequences of our actions and decisions are upon us, what can be done? Nothing, for it is too late. We must rely on the infinite grace of God. Little else can be done. So why should we sow in the flesh today?

Jesus taught His disciples to pray, “Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done in heaven”. People pray, “Lord, Thy Kingdom come,” but seldom do they see it come in the earth! They pray alright, but somehow they fail to see that God’s plan is to bring His kingdom here, upon the earth. Heaven is here on the earth we shall see heavenly things. God will remove the things of the earth and overlay it with heavenly things. He wants to bring the heavens, upon the earth. Why is He doing this digging and paving? He wants to remove that which is of the earth and overlay it with heavenly things.

removing that which is of your will and my will so that he can

Today, you are free to walk in your will and none can stop you, I see people who will say, "Lord, I am willing to lay aside my will. I am ready to say. I do not want to do my will any more." Please do not fail to do what you want to argue and bargain with God, He will let you do what you want, but you have to face the consequences. We will have to face the consequences of our choices today, apart from God. We can have our way today, but what we choose today and every day govern and dictate the consequences we will face in future. If people do not listen to the Lord and obey Him, we can do to help them.

At one time, I desired that everyone I met should be saved. I would use force, if necessary! Such was my zeal. However, one day my eyes were opened that Jesus Christ never forced His way upon others. After I learned the Body of Christ and the deeper truths of God's purpose for man, I decided to and go the way of the truth that had been revealed to me. Now I know that an attitude cannot bring an inward change in others. I can only influence them by their own wisdom and in their own ways any more, as indeed they do in the end? The consequences of our choices remain upon us. Remember what the Lord said in the book of Jeremiah, "What will you do if you do not sow in the flesh is what was sown in the flesh. That principle is unchangeable. People and God will forgive us but God's principle is that you reap what you sow. This is an everlasting principle.

Our cry in these days needs to be, "Lord, I want to be worked upon by you. Where we consider and reconsider, evaluate and reevaluate our choices and ways. We must ever remain open before the Lord. The cry of the heart is "Work in me some more, Lord. Get deeper into me, Lord. Take root in me, Lord. Get to the bedrock, and to the substratum of my life. My thoughts are perverted, Lord. My judgments are not right a lot of times my mind is not right. Fill it with something of heaven. Lord, done, for no one else can. Remove some more earthliness from with the heavenly things.”

The Lord is digging the earth to make a place for the heaven. H earthliness and replacing it with something from heaven. That do in our lives. He will remove that which is earthly within, and heavenly. That is what the Lord is doing in these days in His ren taking away the earthly aspects of their nature and replacing it Praise the Lord! Saints, give in to the Lord for such a work.
