A FIRST-HAND EXPERIENCE

Nicodemus was a man who thought he knew everything, but presence (John 3:1-3), then the areas of his darkness and blindness. Beloved, only when we come to the Lord and draw near to Him to the extent of the darkness within our lives. We have to live by this principle in relation to the light in the face of Jesus Christ. If we see our another person's life, we may think our lives are better or higher than judge our lives. The true darkness in our lives will only be revealed in the presence of the Lord. This is not only true when we begin our journey, but continually applicable as we grow up spiritually. Therefore, it is unreservedly open for spiritual light to enter our lives. Unfortunately, that we are in the light just because we have acquired some knowledge hearing messages! But remember that the Lord is primarily interested in the things of things!

In Chapter 9 of the Gospel of John, we read of the blind man who was blind, but now I see". We need to have such an experience, not just in our lives, but throughout our growth, so that our spiritual seeing is progressive.

Many a time, we are quick to read and grasp things that do not reflect a reality that God's people in this day and age are more deceived than they make-believe that they have come into a greater knowledge of 21st century, we are more prone to deception than those who lived are more technologically advanced today than saints in the past, we the light quicker, but the spiritual poverty and depleted life of belief most of us are far away from true spiritual light. Beloved, we have to light. It is not a matter of being a group of people who come to Remember, that the remnant talks of a people with a certain quality the life of the Son Himself. We are to be those who demonstrate incorruptible life of the Son. The Lord gives us light so that we may walk

The blind man said, "Once I was blind, but now I see." He came said, "Now I see." There can be nothing that is second hand in our spiritual life; life must be a first-hand experience! In the blind man was second-hand up until he received sight from the Lord! Some uncle or who his neighbor was; he had to hear what others said to moment of his life because he was absolutely blind. Everything was it. But after his eyes were opened his life, was so different. This is need to understand this basic tenet of Christian life. That is why Christ subject, it cannot be received through some class-room teaching. should know this very important basic principle. Always remember conception and not by teaching! It is like a woman who conceives a within her by a process of conception.
